

Sponsored by the Small Business Deputy Sector Navigator

NACCE College Memberships Available !

Through Deputy Sector Navigator funding, up to ten individuals from your college (Plus your President) may hold NACCE (National Association for Community College Entrepreneurship) memberships. NACCE helps community colleges nationwide link their traditional role of workforce development with entrepreneurial development, resulting in innovative ideas and programs that advance economic growth and prosperity in the communities served by our colleges.

Request Your Membership NOW!

Why Join NACCE?

NACCE provides a wide variety of strategic resources, professional development opportunities, and access to grant funds. Your NACCE membership will help you accelerate the growth of your entrepreneurship program and assist more stakeholders in your region.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES- NACCE membership provides exclusive grant access such as annual and year-round grants opportunities-with over $1,000,000 awarded to date.

SUBSCRIPTION TO NACCE'S QUARTERLY JOURNAL, FAST COMPANY AND INC. MAGAZINES - Bringing stories of entrepreneurship to your door! Members may also submit a story or news on upcoming events related to entrepreneurship on their campus for inclusion in our journal.

NACCE FIRST WORD/LIST-SERV - GET THE FIRST WORD! First Word is our exclusive community list-serv. It enables members to post questions for the network to respond to or offer feedback. Get answers, ideas and help in solving puzzles and challenges related to your entrepreneurship programs, projects and plans. It's also where we first post messages about funding, conference and publicity opportunities.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- ° Annual Conference and Regional Summits- Members receive reduced rates for NACCE's flagship annual conference and summits. Gather and network with experts in entrepreneurship education.
- ° Monthly Webinars- NACCE webinars are a great way to learn from the experts about entrepreneurship, the latest programs and more! Free for Members.
- ° Online Training- NACCE offers an Entrepreneurship Specialist Certificate Course for Faculty

ACCESS TO NACCE'S RESOURCE LIBRARY- Members only access to curricula, past conference presentations and webinars, syllabi, course outlines, sample grant proposals, and hundreds of other helpful resources.

ACCESS TO MEMBER AMBASSADORS - NACCE membership allows for colleges to work with the NACCE Member Ambassador Program which connects, educates and develops the NACCE community.

NETWORK OF ENTREPRENEURS - NACCE membership provides a national network of practicing entrepreneurs and community college practitioners who are available to assist with growing your entrepreneurship program. Connect with key contacts using our searchable member database.

Reserve your College Membership NOW!

To learn more and reserve a NACCE Membership for your community college, call or email Guin Griswold at NACCE griswold@nacce.com or 413-306-3131 before February 15, 2015. Guin will coordinate with Deputy Sector Navigator Lisa Kiplinger-Kennedy for payment. Guin can also assist you in building your team to round out your membership and work with you to include your college President in the Presidents for Entrepreneurship Pledge.

Interested in Attending the NACCE 2015 Conference?

The NACCE Conference is a great opportunity for professional development, learning best practices and making valuable connections with like-minded entrepreneurial colleagues. Contact your Small Business Deputy Sector Navigator, Lisa Kiplinger Kennedy, about receiving a travel stipend to attend NACCE 2015 in Houston, TX October 11-14, 2015.

Lisa Kiplinger-Kennedy
Small Business Deputy Sector Navigator
Inland Empire/Desert Region
| 760-245-4271 x2938 | E-mail | Website

